

Robert Michael Ballantyne	The Dog Crusoe and His Master By Robert Michael Ballantyne (1825-1894) This is a story of an adventure involving a young man, his dog, and two friends. Together they wander through the Western prairies on a mission to make peace between the “pale-faces” and the “Red men.” They face many perils and become heroes many times over. This wonderful story takes the characters (and the reader) on an action-packed journey through the Western prairies during the times when relations between the white man and the Natives were not always peaceful. Read by Allyson Hester.
